Dear Pearl:

Thanks for your letter of March 4. It prodded me into making a decision about the Atlanta Conference. My present plans are to attend beginning with the opening session for Administrators at 1:00 P. M., Thursday April 5. My wife will be with me and we will be staying with our married daughter in Decatur.

If at all possible we will come over Wednesday night. In that event I will attend the breakfast for the faculty Thursday morning. It may be that we cannot get away until Thursday A.M. In any event expect me for the afternoon session.

In addition our cataloger, Mrs. Elaine Goodwin, plans to come over for the session beginning Friday. Her husband will be with her if they are able to come. Do we have pre-registration and is there a registration fee? It is easier for us to bring an official check than to get reimbursed. Our registration fee, if any, is all we can get reimbursed for on this trip anyway. We have a little travel money but are saving it for the annual meeting.

Please let me know if I can help in any way.

Sincerely,

William C. Younger
